

CREEPY CREATIVE WRITING IDEAS FROM CROOKED OAK

DAN SMITH | 978-1-78112-920-3

Pick one or more of the writing ideas from the list below, turn over this page and start writing. (You can use extra paper if you need more space!)

1. Can you create your own scary creature or supernatural force like the one creeping its way through Crooked Oak? What would it look like and how would it act? Is it alien, mythical, or something completely unknown ...?

Write a paragraph to describe it (you could try drawing it too).

2. Imagine your own hometown, house or school has been taken over by something sinister. How would you know things had gone wrong? What clues would give it away?

Write a descriptive passage to build tension and suspense.

Remember, don't give away what's going on ...

3. Imagine you are Krish from The Invasion of Crooked Oak. At one point Krish is separated from Pete and Nancy, what do you think happened to Krish during this bit of the story?

Write a missing scene from Krish's point of view.

4. Using one of the below starting prompts write your own creepy story:

- It was a dark and stormy night when ...
- Everything changed the day the ...
- I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw ...

